Excursion consent form – 2025 – JCU Careers in Health Breakfast

Privacy Statement

The Department of Education is collecting the personal information in this form in order to:

- obtain consent for the named child/student to participate in the excursion;
- help coordinate the excursion;
- respond to any injury or medical condition that may arise during or as a result of the excursion; and
- update school records where necessary.

The information will only be accessed by authorised departmental staff. The information will not be disclosed to any other person or agency unless we have your consent or we are required or authorised by law to do so e.g. in compliance with relevant Queensland Chief Health Officer's Directions.

On Friday 7th March 2025, we will be attending the James Cook University – "Careers in health that you may not have considered" breakfast. This exciting and informative breakfast will feature a panel of students and academic staff to unpack careers and courses from a wide range of areas such as Medical Research, Pharmacy, Occupational Therapy, Nursing, Midwifery, Speech Pathology, Dentistry, Physiotherapy, Medicine, surgery and many more. The breakfast aims to explore careers within health and medical fields for regional youth. In addition, JCU will bring Student Ambassadors from a wide range of health and medical fields to speak to students.

Activity risks and insurance

The Department of Education does not have personal accident insurance cover for children/students. If a child/student is injured as a result of an accident or incident while participating in the activity, all costs associated with the injury, including medical costs are the responsibility of the parent/carer. Some incidental medical costs may be covered by Medicare. If the parent/carer has private health insurance, some costs may also be covered by your provider. Any other costs must be covered by the parent/carer. It is up to the parent/carer to decide the type/s and level of private insurance they wish to arrange to cover their child. Please take this into consideration in deciding whether or not to allow the child/student to participate in this activity.
