

Guidance Officers – Tam Wemyss & Geoff McLeod

Guidance Officers deliver a broad range of services to school community members. The main focus being student support and wellbeing. The Guidance Officer:

- supports delivery of whole school educational programs
- provides counselling and case management support for students
- conducts psychoeducational assessments
- provides career advice and development
- provides strategies for teachers working with students
- develops and implements student support programs
- provides leadership, support and case management when responding to sensitive and complex student circumstances